Statement 2 - IN Form NP-20, Line 4 - Purpose of Mission of OrganizationDescription

Food Rescue's mission is to feed people and save surplus perishable food from being needlessly wasted in schools. Our focus is on rescuing the modest amounts of perishable food that is wasted daily in our Country that by itself cannot justify the manpower and equipment/trucks normally used by large caring agencies to rescue food. These modest amounts of food are also typically wasted at irregular times and are too inconvenient for large caring agencies to logistically manage.

After rescuing over 7 million dollars of retail food in 18 states from 2008 through 2010 using thousands of volunteers, Food Rescue decided to focus on 4 main objectives:

1. Build a subscriber base to speak to the issue of food waste to encourage food establishments to engage in food recovery practices, rather than waste such a valuable resource.
2. Educate children in schools about local, national, and world hunger and food waste issues using our Hats for Hunger Program.
3. Provide logistical support for food pantries and food establishments in Indiana.
4. Inspire people to support food recovery efforts where they exist in their communities, and to educate people about the process of establishing food recovery programs where they do not exist.

Food Rescue empowers students in K-12 schools to lead food rescue initiatives within the Richard Russel National school lunch program by providing free online educational resources and mentoring to develop a K Food Rescue programs in their schools.
